

27

15

Table of Contents

3 Introduction

Objectives of this workshop
Why learn about temperament and behaviour
Defining temperament and behaviour
Temperament
Behaviour
Examples

5 My Temperament Made Me Do It!

Why should we temperament test
What are we testing for
Note about testing puppies
Observe versus interpret
Canine Behaviour Evaluation Form
Dog Behavioural Evaluation Form

15 Ag-Grrr-ession

Factors influencing aggressive behaviour
Types of aggression
Environmental stressors
Evasive techniques

23 It's All In The Breed...Or Is It?

What behaviour isn't typical or normal
Sporting Breeds
Scent Hounds
Sight Hounds
Working Breeds
Terriers
Toy Breeds
Non-Sporting Breeds
Herding Breeds

27

27 I Can't Talk But My Body Says It All

*Maternal influence
Facial expressions
Stressed, unsure and fearful
Dominance/aggression
Extreme aggression
Submission/timid
Relaxed, content and secure
Playful
Displacement behaviours
Frustration*

33 For Groomers

*Quickly assessing a dog
Questions to ask the owner
On the table
Useful restraints
In the bathtub
Drying
Grooming
Safety tips*

36 For Bylaw Officers / SPCA Agents

*Quickly assessing a dog
How to approach an unknown dog
Useful restraints
How to deal with different types of temperaments
Safety tips*

39 For Pet Sitters / Walkers

*Quickly assessing a dog
Questions to ask the owner
How to deal with different types of temperaments
Useful restraints
Walking someone's dog
Safety tips*

41 For Pet Owners

*What would likely make a good family companion
What would likely not make a good companion
Assessing a puppy before buying
Questions to ask the breeder
Assessing a puppy once at home
Useful restraints for puppies
Crates and training
Safety tips
Excerpt*

45 For Other Individuals (mailman, utility companies, door-to-door salesmen, etc)

Territorial aggression and learned aggression

47 Conclusion

*What next?
How to use the information from this workshop*

49 References